Elgin, Ore. August 28 1895
Geo. W. Linsgreen, Elgin Ore.

Dear sir. I hereby authorize you to cancel my name from the petition for the road through your farm. and also to sign my name to the remonstrance against said road.

My reason is this. Justice computing said petition represented to me there would be but one opponent, viz John Elliott.

Yours truly R. C. Mays

Remonstrance

To the Honorable County Court for the County of Union, State of Oregon at the August term August 7th 1895

By the undersigned legal voters Home-holders, and residents in the County of a certain proposed road petitioned for by S. A. Burroughs et al. in Elgin Precinct which petition is to be heard at the next session of the County Court to wit On August the 7th AD 1895 do hereby Respectfully Remonstrate against the laying and Reprint that it is not practicable to accomplish the proposed work without an expense greatly exceeding the aggregate benefits to be derived from said Road that said road if established would not be of ^{sufficient} public utility or Convinced to justify establishing it
