REMONSTRANCE.

Comes now the undersigned persons, residents and freeholders of the road district in which the above proposed road is proposed to be altered, and hereby remonstrate against the alteration of said road and represent to the Court that the alteration of said road would be a great inconvenience to the public in general, and especially to persons residing in said road district, and further represent to your Honorable Court that the present sixty foot road is entirely satisfactory, being none too wide, and that a fifty foot road as proposed would be entirely unsatisfactory, and for the further reason that by said petition the terminus of said road is proposed to be changed, and if so changed would deprive certain residents of said road district of a County road to their timber lands and to the National Forest Reserve, and that the road as proposed would be entirely impracticable.
