July, 23rd., 1918.

To the Honorable County Court for Union County, Oregon.

Gentlemen:--

I, R. R. Neal, your Deputy County Surveyor, considered and ordered to view the proposed County Road Vacation petitioned for by James Mulholland, et al., beg leave to report that on the 1st day of July, A. D. 1918, I carefully examined said road and find as follows:--

That the necessity for said road is eliminated by the newly constructed road commonly known as the Phy Road.

That the Phy Road is in good condition for travel and is relieving all the present traffic in the Hot Lake vicinity.

I therefore recommend that said road be vacated as petitioned by James Mulholland et al., and that farther burdensome maintenance be eliminated.

Respectfully submitted,

Deputy County Surveyor.
